Four Severe Earthquake Shocks Are Felt, but No Further Volcano Is Silent.

Fort De France, Martinique, Aug. 4.— Four strong earthquake shocks were felt here Thursday night. Great alarm was felt by the inhabitants. It is feared another eruption of Mount Pelee is imminent. So far the volcano
has shown no signs of activity.

WAREHOUSE

BEING ADDED TO PLANT OF CO.
HANKS COMPANY.

Structure Will Be 50 by 150 in Dimensions—To Store Cotton for Its Own Use.

In order that it may handle more
raw material here, the Cohanus
Manufacturing company is building
a new warehouse, 50 by 150 on its
property adjacent to the factory.
Heretofore, cotton has been brought
here only as needed as there was no place to keep large quantities. The new warehouse will have a large rapidity and facilitate the process of manufacture.

EXAGGERATED ACCOUNT.

Mayfield Insurance Firm Denies a Wild Story.
L. Deupree & company, fire insurance agents, at Mayfield, write to The Sun, denying the publication in another paper, which stated that a $50,000 loss was sustained in a recent tobacco barn fire in Mayfield.
The firm states that no loss reaching anywhere near that figure have been sustained.

Suffers From Old Wound.

Columbus, O., Aug. 1.—Suffering
from five old bullet wounds in his body, three in the legs and two on the right side below the shoulder, Sebake Walters, recruit at the Columbus bar-
acks, from Lexington, Ky., was removed to the hospital from the third
company of instruction today. Walters
is a member of a feudal family in Kentucky, and his father and mother were killed in a feud. Walters himself received his wounds in the fight.

Gage's Son a Subtle.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 4.—E. A.
Gage, a son of former Secretary of State Gage, shot himself through the heart in this city this afternoon.
Friends say he had been acting very
strangely for some time.

Negroes Warned to Stay Away From Paducah Because of Bitter Feeling

Somebody, whose motives are as well concealed as his identity, has been sending out postals to mayors
of surrounding cities, advising them
to warn the negro population not to come to Paducah Emancipation day,
because there is a bitter feeling between the whites and blacks in this city. Last night messages were received from Memphis and other points, from which expressions are to run, asking about situation. In nearly all the messages it was stated that
the authorities did not desire to send the colored population to Paducah to be butchered. Inquiry
around the city fails to elicit any

The fate of the cabinet is in the balance and Russia is on the verge of disorders which may lead either to the reign of the military or of the proletariat. It can be stated definitely that the first step toward a dictatorship
may be taken Sunday or Monday
by the nomination of the Grand Duke Nicholas to the chief command of all the troops in Russia.
This would virtually place him in control of the disturbed districts
where martial law has been proclaimed.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 1.—Recent
uprisings and mutinies have so alarmed
the czar, it is stated, that he has decided to abandon all liberalism and
rule in the future with an iron hand.
Complete returns to absolutism is anticipated. Premier Stolypin's retirement is regarded as assured in view
of his failure to form a cabinet. About 175 Cronstadt mutineers were placed on trial for the recent outbreak. It is reported the government intends to select a number of mutineers and
shoot them.

Strike Comes to an End.
Helsingfors, Aug. 1.—The general
strike began here during the mutiny
at Sveaborg fortress ended this morning, having proved a complete failure.
Guardians are being arrested on sight
for their part in the disturbance which have occurred.

Socialist Outrages.
Warsaw, Aug. 4.—A proclamation
was issued by the Polish Socialists today, in which they admit they killed 20 policemen during last week and say they are responsible for the recent
train robbery.

Ports Damaged.
Helsingfors, Aug. 1.—Your correspondent visited the forts at Sveaborg
today and found them badly damaged
by the firing during the recent mutiny.
At the time the mutineers surrendered 800 men were taken prisoners and locked up. Over 600 were missing. Investigation showed the mutineers had only sufficient provisions to last them a half day.

All Quiet in Capital.
St. Petersburg, August 1.—An attempt to organize the railroad
strike failed. All is quiet in the capital.

Odessa, August 4.—It is reported
barracks were removed from the guns of the warships of the Black sea squadron, as the officers fear the
men cannot be depended on to remain
loyal.

Officers Flee in Terror.
St. Petersburg, Aug. 1.—The accounts received here of the mutiny on
the armored cruiser Pamyat Azova, on August 1, show that the sailors expected to obtain the support of the garrison of the fortress at Reval. A stu-

TO WORK-HOUSE

Toledo Ice Men Will Have to Go In September.

Toledo, O., August 4.—Judge
Habeck, in the common pleas court
today, handed down his decision in the ice cases, sustaining Judge Klunkade in every particular. Were it not for the fact that the ice men's attorneys succeeded in getting into the circuit court on error, the defendants would at once have to go to the work-house. Technically, their cases
are yet pending in the upper court,
although Judge Habeck's decision
removes the case entirely from the circuit court.

FORREST'S MEN

WILL MEET AT MEMPHIS EARLY
IN OCTOBER.

Will Parade Route They Charged Over
October 21, 1864—Will Visit Tomb.

Memphis, Aug. 1.—A number of the survivors of Forrest's cavalry met in the offices of Capt. W. A. Collier
yesterday afternoon and discussed
plans for holding a reunion of the surviving members of the corp, in this city, some time in October. The veterans elected E. M. Withers chairman, and I. N. Hainey secretary. Mr. Withers appointed the following named
gentlemen a committee on preliminary arrangements, all of whom were former soldiers under Forrest: J. P. Young,
W. A. Collier, J. Q. Davidson, H. A.
Tatum, K. E. Cannon, I. J. McKellar
and D. C. Jones.

The troop, mounted, will parade the
route they charged over on the morning of Aug. 21, 1864. A pilgrimage
will then be made to the tomb of their former leader, where exercises will be held.

The date mentioned was the last appearance of Forrest's cavalry in the limits of Memphis.
The roster of the names of the dead
and living is in the possession of Gen.
H. A. Tyler. He will have charge of the maneuvers.

The same thing which at dawn
awoke the slumbering troop with the
notes of the reveille and urged them
against Union guns will be sounded by
the same bugler.

TO CURE CRIMINALS

Operations Being Performed by Quinker City Doctors.

Philadelphia August 4.—Following the theories of the city's foremost physicians and the recent ruling of the juvenile courts, the Pennsylvania Society to Protect Children from Cruelty, working in conjunction with Director Coplin, of
the bureau of health, has instituted
the practice of performing operations
upon the children given into his charge where medical opinion is that such a course is likely to prevent a criminal career. The first subjects were operated on yesterday at the infirmary of the society. In all seven children were put under the knife by a number of the city's most prominent surgeons.

CAUGHT REAL LORD

Instead of the Bogus One Who Is a Noted Bligamist.

Portland, Maine, Aug. 4.—Instead
of having in custody an American
bigamist known as "Lord Douglas,"
wanted by the authorities of many states, as was at first supposed, the Portland police, it is thought have detained Lord Sholto Douglas, third
son of the late Marquis of Queensberry.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

Congressman and Mrs. Longworth
Leave Europe.

Cherbourg, August 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth sailed for
New York today on the steamer St.
Paul. They have bidden adieu to their friends, officials and the members of the embassy. The state-room
in which they travel is filled with flowers and other gifts.

PARK BOND ISSUE MEETS WITH FAVOR

Broadway Seems to Believe in
The Project.

Merchants Express Their Views on the Subject and Tell How Parks Benefit.

NO EXTRA BURDEN ON CITY.

What do you think of the park
proposition? "was asked of many of the city's merchants and business men,
and the replies were both favorable
and unfavorable.

The necessity of parks to a city
generally was admitted. The advantage of doing something toward securing them immediately was, as one
merchant said, "a dollar will purchase more now than it will a year
from now."

"Health and educational facilities
are the two essential things considered
by a man of family moving to a new
city, and the chances are strong that he would go to a city where both are
good even at the expense to a degree
of business opportunities. Parks indisputably make a city healthier,"
said Mr. Phillips of Rudy, Phillips & company. "I understand that the proposition to issue bonds cannot possibly increase taxation, but you can
quote me as for the proposition
whether it does or not."

That kind of spirit was not always
exhibited though all persons expressed
opinions, which showed they have the interests of the city at heart, and if they objected to the bond issue, it was because they thought they would best
be promoting those interests.

"I think the city has as much bonded indebtedness as it should bear,"
said Mr. Rehkopf, of the E. Rehkopf Saddlery company.

Many persons, when the issue was
clearly shown, approved the proposition. Mr. Wallerstein of Wallerstein Bros., expressed his opinion that
by all means a city should have parks
and thought that the plan proposed
by the park commission was feasible.
Alderman Hank is heartily in favor
of the bond issue and thinks the general council will allow the people to vote on the proposition next fall.

"It seems to me," said Mr. Nagel,
of Nagel & Meyer, "that two or three
big parks would be better than one in every ward."

Speaking about locations and size
of parks the opinion varied widely
though confidence in the ability of the commission to satisfactorily settle
those questions was expressed.

"To spend a few thousands a year
on parks would be like throwing chips into a stream to get across. One determined effort, like the proposed
bond issue, would bridge the necessity. The proposition of the park commission, as I understand it, would work itself out. The $5,000 must be spent each year and it could be used
most conservatively to pay both interest on bonds and provide a fund to retire them at the end of thirty years,"
said Mr. Thompson, of the Racket store.

"I am strongly opposed to any further bond issue by the city," said Mr.
Riecke, of the L. B. Ogilvie & company. "Let us spend what we can
without going in debt for any more than we are now."

"While traveling through the west
recently," said Mr. J. L. Wolf, "I was struck by the parks in the western cities. They add incalculably to the appearance of the places. We must have parks here some time. Every month lost before securing them
increases the cost. If effort is made to secure them through the bond issue, we, in the present, may enjoy
the parks, while, if the small assessment is spent year by year it will be
years before any noticeable results
can be seen."

That the city would have to provide
parks sooner or later was a strong argument with many persons and the predominant opinion was that it should be done rather sooner than later.
Mr. Charles Weller, of B. Weller & Son, vigorously approves the bond issue and said he will favor the issue
even if it increases his taxes.

"An incidental consequence, though
one of considerable importance to the business of the city," he said, "would be that $500,000 foreign capital
would be brought into the city to be spent among its citizens."
"It is a proposition of vital importance to the city and I am confident
that it will be more strongly endorsed
as it becomes more generally understood," was the emphatic approval of
one prominent merchant.

FOR ZION'S LEADER.

Two Candidates Have Filed Their Nomination Certificates.

Chicago, August 4.—Two candidates filed their certificates of nomination for the office of general overseer of the Christian Apostolic Catholic church in Zion City in the United States circuit court today. The candidates are Wilbur Glenn Voliva, who look charge of the property after Dowle had been suspended, and Alfred E. Bills, a former adherent of Dowle, who claims to be opposed to Voliva. Dowle through his attorneys,
disclaims any connection with Bills.
Dowle will not be a candidate.

RUSH GUARDS

AND ONE LIFE CONVICT IS SHOT
DEAD IN TRACKS.

Another Murderer Escapes but Other
Fifty-Eight Prisoners Are Blocked
at Door.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 4.—A life-time
negro convict shot dead and the escape of another life prisoner were the results of a rush of sixty negro convicts in the camp on Marietta street
last midnight in an effort to have a general camp delivery. When Guara Pope opened the door of the room
where the convicts were sleeping he was knocked down by Hargrove, a murderer, who recently killed a railroad night watchman. Others rushed
over the prostrate form of the guard.
Another guard shot Hargrove, killing
him. Only one man escaped.

MOVING PICTURES

Of Man-of-War Scenes to Encourage More Enlistments.

Washington, Aug. 4.—In the last session of congress there was some severe criticism of the method of the navy in securing enlistments, it being
asserted that the pictures of a warship
at anchor and trim sailors about to go out to her in a launch fired the imagination of the young man who found
the reality quite a different thing.
Now it is proposed at the navy department to encourage enlistments by
the use of moving pictures of actual
scenes aboard a man-of-war.

WANTED 15,000 MEN.

To Harvest the Bumper Crops in the Northwest.

Minneapolis, Minn., August 4.—
With a bumper crop in the northwest and no men to harvest it, the farm labor situation in Minnesota
today is the worst in the history of the state. Fifteen thousand men are needed in Minnesota, Iowa, and the Dakotas and only about a thousand are available. The wages vary from $1.75 to $3 a day and board, but the jobs go begging.

THREE LITTLE GIRLS

On Way From Helsingfors, Finland,
to Portland, Maine.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 4.—Each of them wearing a tag marked "Portland, Ore. U. S. A.," three little girls, the eldest not more than 12 years old,
arrived here unaccompanied today on the Cunard line steamer Ivernia from Helsingfors, Finland. The girls were given over to the railroad officers for
their long journey across the continent. They go to their father, Peter Westgard, of Portland, Ore.

Great European Rulers to Meet on

London, Aug. 4.—It was officially

and Emperor William will meet at Friedrichsruh castle, near Hamburg,
Germany, August 15.

Two Cars Ditched.

Russellville, Ky., August 4.—Two cars of the north bound passenger
train were ditched on the O. and N.
near Lewisburg this morning. J. M.
Bartow, a passenger, was slightly injured.

night or Sunday. Cooler by Sunday night. The highest temperature reached yesterday was 93

Fourth Ward—John G.

The committee appointed by The Sun to award the prizes in its contests for the prettiest yards in each
ward, and a capital prize for the prettiest yard in the entire city met
at the office of Mayor Yeiser Thursday and made the above decisions.
The committee was Mayor Yeiser, Dr. J. Q. Taylor, president of the board of public works, and Dr. D. G.
Murrell president of the park commissioners.

The prizes are $10 in cash for the
prettiest yard in each ward, and $15
in cash for the prettiest in the entire city.

The Sun was no easy one and the
gentlemen had to make two trips
over the city before they could determine on the awards.

"I think you should furnish us
transportation on to French Lick,"
said Mayor Yeiser, when he handed
in the committee's report, "for, with all the pretty yards we saw in Paducah, it was a hard task to decide which were the prettiest, and we
may have many people to disagree
with our decisions."

"I never saw as many pretty
yards in Paducah as there are now,"
he continued, "and I have seldom
seen anything that caused the interest of the committee, for weeks
have been sought by people with
pretty yards not to forget their
yards, and it was astonishing the interest aroused."

The committee, in its report, took occasion to call attention to, and
asked that a list of the yards deserving of especial attention be published, as they felt there were a great number of them deserving the honor, and that the publication on
such an honor roll would do much
in stimulate still greater interest in pretty yards next year.

The report says: "The courthouse yard," credit for the condition
of which is due Judge Lightfoot,
"would have undoubtedly secured
the first, or capital prize, had it been eligible, but according to the rules
of the contests, only private residences could compete. The court-

Held Up by Mountain Moonshiners Who Thought He Was Revenue Man

"Walker's Tonic," the product of the Sutherland Medicine company,
has a suggestive title, and it long
will be associated in the mind of E.
L. Huddleston, traveling salesman
for the concern, with a recent attack in pedestrianism, witnessed by him
in the mountains of East Kentucky.
The natives mistook him for a government agent on the lookout for a certain kind of tonic peculiar to the mountains, which superinduces an inclination to stand and fight rather than walk. Mr. Huddleston reached Hindman during the recent foot
troubles and found the whole community taking sides. He had to travel out of Hindman through the mountains far from the madding crowd
and equally distant remote from the "steam cyahs." Under the pressure
of urgent necessity everybody else

carried a gun and wore a suspicious
gleam in his eye. Mr. Huddleston
went armed only with a sample case
of "Walker's Tonic" and beamed commercially. He was wholly unprepared when a silent voice commanded: "Halt!" on a lonely
hill side, and as he drew rein, a
dozen uncouth forms, bearing rifles,
sprang out. He was surrounded and questioned as to his identity. His denial of having any official relations with Uncle Sam carried little weight and he was searched. Then his sample case was inspected. Now, here is where the veracity of a traveling salesman comes to the test.
Mr. Huddleston says the moonshiners drank all the "Walker's Tonic"
and walked away; but nothing is
said about a fair exchange of commodities.

of town John Sharpe, 50 years old,
objecting to his attentions to the young daughter of a farmer. Sharpe returned armed, was recaptured and horse-whipped almost to death and ridden out of town on a rail. This morning it was discovered the girl
also had vanished.

WHITE MAN HANGED.

First Legal Victim Since War in Charleston County, S. C.

Charleston, S. C., Aug. 4.—Wm.
Marcus, the first white man to be executed in Charleston county since the civil war, was hanged here today for the murder of his bigamous wife on Sullivan's Island last April. The victim was stabbed forty times with an ice
pick. It was not learned until within the last few days that Marcus had a wife and five children living in Cincinnati.

The Indians, crippled by Eddie Taylor's desertion and Downing's illness, beat the Hostlers yesterday by a score of 3 to 2 in one of the neatest and most interesting games seen on the local ball field this season. Errors were few and far between. The runs made by the visitors were secured on battery errors and it ought to have been a shut-out to the Indians' credit.

Sammy Wright was in the box for the locals and Jokers did the throwing for the visitors. Jokers did not show up so well as his opponent. Wright walked fewer men and had the support of Jokers in battery work; he would have pitched a shut-out game. Once when the Hostlers tied the score it looked as though the Indians could not overcome the lead, but in the next inning the winning run was tallied.

In the first inning King made safe on Quigley's muff of his clipper and went down on Doyle's sacrifice. McCarty filled out to center and Bierkorte singled, King, who had gone to third on a passed ball by Asher, scored on a clipper to Cooper.

The Indians made two, in the same inning. Quigley went out on a grass clipper and Cooper singled. Brahe went out to center and Wetzel singled and stole second. Haas' single scored Cooper and Wetzel, and the side was retired on Lloyd's ground out to third.

The teams went it hard after this, the Indians managing to keep the Hostlers down until the fatal seventh when Magill singled, went to second on a passed ball, and was given the plate by another passed ball.

In the eighth inning the Indians won the game. Quigley walked and was forced out at second by Cooper's grounder. Brahe and Wetzel's singles scored the runner and the game was won, the Hostlers being retired in the ninth with no additional runs.

Hostlers Give Batting Exhibition.
Vincennes, Ind., August 4.—The locals gave a batting exhibition yesterday in which 11 healthy blunders, some of them well bunched, won the game. With ease, "Mattie" Mattison and Louis Barbour got mad at the ball and knocked home runs. It was a case of "Everybody hit but the Soldiers."

Dope.

Wiley Platt is here.
He arrived this morning and was up and about at 4:30 o'clock.

Wiley could not stay in bed, because he had not been in "Old Paducah" in some time and wanted to get out and "take a look" before the locals had the "deadwood on him."

"I see the streets are all torn up," he remarked early this morning. "I hope your team is not in the same condition as the streets."

The team is just a shade to the bad, but with Wiley in, new confidence will be infused, and the Indians will give some of the teams a hard road to travel with the "Wiley" southpaw in the box. Sunday the Hostlers and Indians will play a double-header. Platt will pitch. It is one of his hobbies to pitch a double-header, and if the team plays as well as the big southpaw pitches it, the Indians may feel assured of victory.

Platt says in regard to his deal to drive out malaria and build up the system Take the Old Standard GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. You know what you are taking. The formula is plainly printed on every bottle, showing it is simply quinine and iron in a tasteless form. The quinine drives out the malaria and the iron builds up the system. Sold by all dealers for 27 years. Price 50 cents.

ings with Grillo, manager of the Toledo team, that he could not get along with him. It is said that because of Grillo's actions a great deal of dissatisfaction is noticeable in the Toledo bunch. This accounts for the slump recently experienced. Land is doing well with the team, but is not being given much of a show, so thinks Platt.

The Indians with a "shot to pieces" bunch, played all around the Hostlers yesterday.

Wetzel batted something like 400 in the last three weeks.

Downing stood it as long as he could. The big catcher is ill of fever. He tried to keep going but it got him down.

Asher is a hard worker and did fairly well behind the bat yesterday. He showed spunk and infused ginger in the bunch.

Women of a questionable character have been excluded from Wallace park baseball grounds. This was done for the protection of other patrons, the management states.

Eddie Taylor deserted the team, because he believes that he has been done an injustice. He stated: "I have quit playing ball for the remainder of the season because I do not feel that I was treated right. The particular instance was in the Mattoon game, when Manager Lloyd fined and benched me for protesting against a bad decision of the umpire. I did not want to throw the team down in its crippled condition, but resent the treatment to such an extent that I preferred getting out of the game."

It is to be regretted that Taylor took this step as it cripples the team a great deal.

Wiley Platt has won 18 out of 25 games he pitched for Toledo.

Pat Downing felt good this morning and will be seen behind the bat this afternoon and in the future. He has succeeded in breaking the fever.

A FAMILY MATTER.

She sewed a button on my coat.
I watched the fingers nimble;
Sometimes I held her spool of thread
And sometimes held her thimble.
"I'm glad to do it, since you're far
From sister and from mother."
"Tis such a thing," she said, and
smiled,
"As I'd do for my brother."

The fair head bent so close to me
My heart was wildly beating,
She seemed to feel my gaze, looked up.

And then our glances meeting,
She flushed a ruddy, rosy red,
And I, bent and kissed her,
"Tis such a thing," I murmured
low.

"As I'd do for my sister."

Delphi Club.

"The object of this club is the mutual improvement of its members along the lines of social and intellectual advancement."—Article 2 of the constitution.

There is one condensed statement we have the expression of a desire of a small band of women to be something more than they are. Of old, the worshippers at the shrine of Delphi sought to penetrate their future by the prophecy of the oracle; but this club, seeking the solution of the future through right living in the present, do not vainly seek the Delphian favor. The improvement sought will be gained by borrowing the light of the past to study the present.

So far we note that the desire of the club members is elevated. The concrete expression of that desire as manifested in the practical working of the club will be the real test of the sincerity of their purpose. The way they go about improving themselves along social and intellectual lines will at the same time show their present status and the scope of their aim.

During the club season of 1905-1906 the actors in the heavy drama of French history were reviewed. Here, indeed, is a period, which, if rightly studied, will advance the members along the lines of social and intellectual advancement. The atmosphere of the time was one of uncertain stimulation and depression. The background was gorgeous. The actors were men and women, strong and weak. If the true and beautiful of that time were appropriated and the false and low left, the object of the club was accomplished.

The program for next season has not been outlined as yet, but it probably will show an even more ambitious task than the one of the season past.

Argument.

Clubs answer the primary social instinct of the race. Not merely do they bring persons together, they bring them together harmoniously and when they are at their best. Society advances in the arts of civilization by the association and interchange of ideas, to accomplish which it is necessary that people mingle. Whatever advancement in social graces we have made, has come about by intercourse. Much may be accomplished by purely social clubs, but when a number of persons come together with an express purpose, and that purpose a desire to be mutually helpful in an intellectual, social or moral way, the progress will be as much greater as conscious efforts always are greater than indefinite aims.

There are clubs in Paducah which have no further definite aim than to pleasantly spend an evening. There are clubs in Paducah which have brought its social life up to the high plane, which, without the exaggeration of "gush," sincerely may be said to be charming. Neither are unnecessary and both kind have been beneficial.

Actually, a perusal of the membership rosters of the different clubs largely will show a duplication of names. It is evident, then, that there is no exclusively intellectual, religious or social element among Paducah women, but all are at once intellectual and religious and social, the different clubs being simply the manifestation of different sides to their characters. This, of course, is broadly speaking. But let us get out of the theory of the subject into the actual fact.

Daily Thought.

"The easiest way to do a thing may be the poorest way."

A veritable roll of honor is the list of contestants for The Sun prizes offered for the prettiest yards in Paducah. It was no easy task to select the finest, as the judges confessed, and as they could follow only their own tastes and decide according to a certain standard, other citizens, just as competent, may disagree with them in many instances as to which yard is the most beautiful. But the prize offered is not the greatest reward the winners attain, and the best of it all is the fact, that in this greatest reward the winners have to share equally with the losers. It is the pleasure in having a yard so beautiful as to attract attention, a home that contributes in so small a way to the upbuilding and advancement of Paducah; the satisfaction of having a nice place in which to live. The Sun takes no small pleasure in awarding the prizes, because the contest, which was inaugurated in the hope of stimulating a budding local pride, has developed a movement for the "City Beautiful" that bids fair now to work a transformation in Paducah's residence streets. It was instituted it seems, at the auspicious time, when a spirit of enterprise and public improvement was just ready for the impetus. The stock law was in force and unsightly fences were being torn away; paving and sidewalks were contemplated for many unimproved streets, and parks for the first time became a certainty of the immediate future. County and city authorities arose to the occasion and set an example to house-holders; and had the county been a contestant, the court-house yard would have run a close race for the beautiful prize. As pioneers in the "City Beautiful" movement The Sun and its contestants take some pride to themselves. Next year—well, next year the judges will have a hard time deciding, sure enough.

Like a declaration of independence read the resolutions adopted by the Central Labor union, and whatever issue anyone may take with action of the body, nothing but congratulations can be offered the members for coming out flat-footed for Paducah; for the high ground they take in matters affecting the municipality, and their attitude towards capital. The members of the Central Labor union are intelligent, skilled men, independent in their knowledge of their craft, and they are wise enough to recognize the demagogue, who would stir up strife between capital and labor, simply to use the latter in furthering his own political ends. Without committing themselves to any specific issue, the members of the union have declared their position on questions of political economy; they have endorsed the Commercial club in promoting the welfare and industrial progress of Paducah, and while maintaining the dignity of labor, have extended the right hand to invested capital. Paducah is proud of the character shown by her laboring men.

We don't know the name of that certain city official who would put a stop to the visits of minors to Kentucky avenue resorts by fining the proprietor every time a minor is caught in one of the places, but he does not go half way in his reform movement. He should make it unlawful for the proprietor of an illicit still to sell to a minor, and make it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine, for a burglar to enter a house occupied by an unprotected female. What a beautiful hole this general council would crowd itself into by enacting an ordinance, regulating a resort that has no standing under the laws of God or man. The best way to prevent minors visiting those places is to abolish them.

Another trusted employe has gone wrong with about $250,000 of the bank's money. But isolated incidents like this should not prejudice us unduly against the trusted employe. The trusted employe is the only kind that gets a chance to steal such a sum.

Seven miles of new sanitary and storm water sewerage sounds well to the constituents of the members of the general council. No special levy and a material cut in the tax rate go with the good news.

Governor Higgins, of New York, sent $1 to the Republican congressional campaign fund. This makes $2 already subscribed, and the committee only opened the books a week ago.

Paducah officers' recent successful effort in quelling riotous disorders should give the lie to the postal writer's charge that race feeling is running high in Paducah.

In Philadelphia humanitarians are performing operations to cure criminal inclinations. We hope the police will catch Paducah's lone thief and amputate his hands.

We would like to know how the police ferreted out the fact, that the mysterious hunchback, who claims to be the devil, is a native of Nashville.

The ice men may be complaining of the cold weather, but we hear no clamorous notes of jubilation from the direction of the coal yards.

Somebody said the outlook for the future of Russia is black. We think it is red.

SEARCHING RECORD

Of the Pretty Chorus Girl Are Parties Held by New Sailor.

San Francisco, Aug. 4.—Mabelle Gilman, the actress and former San Francisco girl, is credited with having in Paris a devoted, young and rich admirer who has succeeded in side-tracking Steel Trust President William Ellis Corey in her regard. As the story comes from the French capital this wealthy admirer has been extravagant in spending his money on the actress and has become so infatuated with her that he insists upon making her his wife.

His relatives are represented as being bitterly opposed to the attachment and hope to finally break it. They are spending a good deal of money in trying to get a record of her life in this city and in New York.

TO WIND UP AFFAIRS.

Directors of General Paper Company Meet in Chicago.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 4.—The directors of the General Paper company held a meeting behind closed doors this afternoon with a view to winding up the affairs as a corporation, in compliance with the decision handed down a few months ago by the United States circuit court. Secretary M. L. Alexander stated after the meeting that the company had ceased to exist, but that one or two more meetings would probably be held before the final details of dissolution were completed.

BRYAN AND TAGGART

Both Upheld By Democrats of Michigan.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 4.—The endorsement of William J. Bryan for president in 1908 and the defeat of a resolution calling upon the national Democratic committee to investigate the charges made against National Chairman Taggart and demand his resignation if they were proven and the nomination of Charles H. Kimmerle, for governor over Stanley E. Parkhill, the only other candidate, after a spirited ballot were the features of the Democratic state convention.

He married another woman. His Cincinnati wife recently heard of his predicament and attempted to have the execution postponed until she could come to Charleston and bid her husband farewell. The governor refused.

Their $1 for Forthcoming Reception to Bryan.

New York, August 4.—In spite of the enthusiasm and widespread interest aroused by the coming reception to William J. By Osteopathy.
"What bone would you pull to treat a headache?" asked a layman. Any bone that may be out of its correct position in the neck or back, so as to bring its pressure upon the nerves which express the pain sense—that is, if the headache happens to be due to a bony slip; but of course it may not be at all. That is one frequent cause, but there are many others which are apt to be operative. A muscular contraction in the back, in the neck, or over the head, may likewise cause headache. Indigestion, eye-strain, mental fatigue, a sluggish liver, constipation, kidney disease, and many other things are frequent causes of headache. Hence the cure of headache osteopathically is the cure of its cause or causes. To find the remedy these causes, having as they usually do an anatomical basis, requires special and thorough training, and that is why osteopathy exists as an independent school of medicine. Its practitioners are specialists. They cure headaches, as they do other diseases, not by "pulling" a bone, unless a bone needs "pulling," but by finding the cause of each special headache and giving that cause whatever treatment is needed to cure it. So in a dozen different headaches none might be treated alike osteopathically, and yet ten or eleven of the dozen would likely be cured. Osteopathy is probably doing more for suffering humanity than any recent discovery, and I should like for you to investigate its merits. I should be pleased to see all who may be interested in osteopathy at any time from 9 a. m. to 12 and 2 to 5 p. m. Osteopathy is the sane, rational treatment of illness and disorders. Dr. G. B. Froage, phone 1407, 516 Broadway.

deat agitator, probably one of the emissaries sent from St. Petersburg, was stowed away on board. When the crew mutinied after midnight, Wednesday, the cruiser was anchored twenty miles down the coast. Evidently her commander, Capt. Saslasky, had been warned, for he arrested and sent ashore a sailor named Throff, who was known as the ringleader. Two hours afterward the sailors rose and killed Capt. Saborovsky, the officer on watch. When he saw the mutineers approaching he made a rush for the cabin rack, but the sailors had jammed the breach blocks of the carriages, and Capt. Saborovsky was shot.

The firing aroused the officers below who ran up on deck, and taking in the situation crowded into a launch moored alongside the Lanyist Azova and started for the shore. The mutineers manned a cutter and put off in pursuit of the launch. Lieut. Unkowsky and two other officers were killed by a shell from the cruiser, and others were wounded. The mutineers in the cutters were rapidly overhauling the launch, when on reaching shallow water, the surviving officers jumped into the bay and made for the shore. An attempt was made by the fugitive officers to drag along with them one of their wounded comrades but he was eventually abandoned and drowned. Eight officers escaped into the woods.

On arriving at Reval, some of the mutineers were put off in a boat for the fortress in order to request the artillerymen to join them, but the authorities had in the meantime been apprised of what had happened, and the mutineers were arrested as they landed.

TWO DETECTIVES BELONG TO AGENCY

"Spotted" Drug Store Alleged to Sell Liquor.

Judge Puryear Takes Cases Under Adversement After Hearing all the Evidence.

OTHER POLICE COURT CASES

Henry Carter and Ed Byrd, two men of median age, of Clay Switch, appeared in the role of prosecuting witnesses against James P. Sleeth, Roy S. Hallowe, and George Ripley, druggists, charged with selling liquor on the Sabbath on last Sunday. They both belonged to detective agencies, one agency having headquarters in Chicago and the other in Indianapolis. Byrd had been a "spotter" on the Illinois Central, and seemed to be the cooler of the two. "We were employed by James Sherrill, a local barkeeper," they stated on the stand, "and were to receive $25 for the first conviction and $12.50 for every other conviction of druggists selling liquor on Sunday."

They testified that they bought liquor from clerk in the drug stores of the gentlemen mentioned above. They could not positively identify the men they bought it from, and there was a great deal of confusion in the testimony.

"I will decide this case, gentlemen, on Monday," Judge Puryear stated.

Mr. Sherrill stated that he employed the two Clay Switch men and represented the Retail Liquor Dealers' Protective association.

Other cases:
Carrie Carter, colored, harboring a vicious dog, continued; Harry Livory company, breach of ordinance, continued; John Muller, malicious assault on Sam Liebel, dismissed; Sam Liebel, maliciously shooting at John Muller, held over under a bond of $300, which he gave; George Elder, breach of ordinance, dismissed; Will Hornsby, Arch Hland, Warren Hill, drunk and disorderly, continued; Jim Patterson, colored, drunk, $1 and costs.

Sebastiao Liotas, aged ten, was playing near the bank and heard his father discharge a revolver. He surmised it was a robbery. He leaped on the man and arrested his progress until he was captured and the money recovered.

OYSTER BAY LITIGATION.

Another Step Taken in Fight Over Water Front.

Oyster Bay, L. I., August 4.—One more step in the litigation over the Oyster Bay water front was taken today when Town Constable MacQuaid served restraining papers issued by the town board on the proprietor of the four estates on which piers and walls were destroyed yesterday. The order forbids the rebuilding of the piers. Lewis C. Tiffany was stopped in his automobile on his way to New York that the service could be made.

Arrested in Mexico.

New York, Aug. 4.—The arrest in Tampico, Mexico, of Raoul Auerbach, wanted in New York to explain an alleged shortage of $33,000 in his books at the wholesale drug house of Lamm & Kump, where he was formerly employed as a confidential bookkeeper was made known to the district attorney's office today.

FOR CITY BEAUTIFUL

house yard, however, is the prettiest in the city, and deserving of mention for that fact.

"The Illinois Central hospital yard is also deserving of mention as a very pretty yard, as are the custom house yard and Carnegie library and we found a little yard adjoining the Tenth and Clay street fire station, belonging to that station, and kept up by the fire boys, which was one of the prettiest we saw in our trips around the city.

"The yard at the Union Station is also worthy of especial notice and deserving of all the compliments it has received.

"One thing worthy of notice was the large number of small yards which were in very pretty condition, with good stands of grass and tasteful selections of flowers, and showing evidence of much attention. In neighborhoods where we would find one of these, we would always find three or four more, which verifies the oft-quoted fact that if one man in a neighborhood keeps a pretty yard it stimulates his neighbor to do the same.

"Another thing shown by the trips the committee took around the city was that the localities where the fences have been taken down, as a whole presented the most pleasing appearance which prompts the hope that by next summer every one will recognize this fact, and show their appreciation of it by taking down the fences everywhere."

The Sun is well pleased with the results of the contests, and believes they have done a good deal toward stimulating an appreciation of and a pride in pretty yards. From the expression that have come from many sources there is no doubt of the good that has been done, and that next year the contests will create still greater interest.

BANK CLEARINGS
INCREASE AGAIN

Indication of Unusually Prosperous Conditions.

Paducah Probably Pays Out More Money to Laborers Than Any Other Town of Size.

RETAIL PROSPECTS BRIGHT.

Bank clearings . . . $700,167.
Same week last year . . 680,208
Increase 19,959

The bank clearings for this week show a slight increase over the same week last year and attest to a consistent increase in business. General reports of collections are fair.

Wholesale houses report good bookings for the future season, and current, day to day demands are exceptionally good. Prices in many lines continue to advance and promises for fall trade are splendid, if the buying for the retail is an index.

Retail trade in July showed a substantial increase over the same month last year. Every month this year has shown a good increase, with June as the lightest, and present outlooks are favorable.

Mr. H. C. Rhodes returned this week from the furniture market at Grand Rapids, where he was making some of his fall purchases, and commenting on the business situation, said: "I never saw a more enthusiastic lot of buyers than there were at the markets this season. Everybody reported fine business so far this year and the prospects for the coming season are exceptionally bright. Buying was more liberal than anything I have seen in years, which is an index of the universal conditions existing."

The buyers at Grand Rapids are usually as close to trade conditions as any set of men in the country and from what I saw at Grand Rapids, I think business conditions will continue at the great degree of prosperity we are now experiencing for some time."

Old Hotel Bonds.
The first bonds issued by the Palmer hotel company, an issue of $35,000, bearing six per cent, which Samuel B. Hughes, trustee, issued 14 years ago, were retired by the hotel company today by a new issue, the old mortgage being released and the bonds destroyed.

Crop Movements.
There has been a good deal of to-hacko moving again this week and the prices have ruled strong. A good deal of wheat has been coming in also, but there is a disposition among some of the growers to speculate a little and hold some of the crop for higher prices.

Money to Laborers.
The active demand for labor continues in Paducah. The work being done on the streets the construction work of the two telephone companies, the gas company, the street car company and the proposed sewerage work has created the biggest demand for day laborers in the history of the city.

It has been a great thing for the town, too and it is probable that more money is being paid out in Paducah every week to day laborers than in any town of its size in the south. It is being felt in all retail lines, and has stimulated every branch of local business.

Bradstreet's Report.
New York, Aug. 4.—Bradstreet's weekly report follows: The sentiment in general seems to have become decidedly more optimistic, the practical insurances of heavy crop yield, the growing buoyancy of iron and steel industry and the relatively heavy volume of orders booked in general lines for fall and winter requirements being the principal stimuli. Iron and steel plants not actually engaged in making repairs, are being worked to their utmost capacity and the action of the principal products in resuming dividends on its common stock exerted a salutary effect on the sentiment. Some steel mills have booked the entire capacity for many months ahead, and if the usual fall business has not been discounted by midsummer bookings the question of deliveries will become a pressing one.

The essential soundness of the mercantile trade in testified to by July and the seven months returns of fall orders to Bradstreet which point to fewer failures and smaller liabilities than in any but the best of the year. Railway earnings are very heavy. Evidences multiply that the momentum already imparted to trade and industry will receive further import and that the year, as a whole, will surpass any previous period in the country's history.

Wheat, including flour export for week ending August 2, 22,396,020 against 1,401,696 this week last year. Corn exports, 623,126 bushels against 1,013,675 bushels a year ago.

Undoubtedly Hunchback Arrested on Suspicion by Illinois Central Policeman.

TOOK AN INTEREST IN HOUSES.

His Satanic Majesty is in Paducah, at least one proclaiming himself as such, is, and his form does not belie his profession. He was arrested last night at the Illinois Central station by Special Policeman Partillo Kirk, and gave the name of Rolly Head. The Illinois Central policeman had been on the lookout for him.

Policeman Kirk was yesterday afternoon notified that a hunchback about 4 feet 5 inches tall had been noticed prowling about residences on Jackson street. The fellow at first was seen alone but later two "pals" were observed to join him. The trio took a lively interest in the houses, the alleys and surroundings in general.

The residents feared robbery and notified the police. Prior to this street car employees had noticed the queer conduct of the trio and reported it to Kirk.

"When I arrested the hunchback he was at the station, but his 'pals' had fled," Policeman Kirk said. "I was able to catch only the dwarf and when I asked him his name he made startling disclosures.

"I am Satan, the Devil," he declared to me, I came from where they burn 'em; I burn 'em myself; he further declared.

I wouldn't stand for the bluff and down the platform I carried him. I noticed he tried to relieve himself of something, but I caught it. It was a bottle of fluid with a nipple on the top of the neck. It was chloroform. Besides this he had three new pocket-knives and a new 'pocket-book' with no money in it. I took him to the police station and searched for his pals but they escaped me. I am inclined to believe that he is a crook.

"He admitted he is from Nashville and had been here but a few days. He gave no occupation."

In police court this morning the prisoner in a high-pitched voice said he lived in Nashville and is 25 years old. His name is Rolly Head.

"What were you doing with that bottle of chloroform?" the court inquired.

"I use it for myself; I am weak; half-starved and can't do without it."

"What are you doing in Paducah, and when did you get in?"

"Yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock and I have been walking ever since."

Judge Puryear held the case open until Monday.

Asks for $10,000,000 of Issue.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Acting Secretary Keop, of the treasury department, received an offer today for $10,000,000 of the next issue of Panama bonds. The offer came from Philadelphia, from an individual who expressed a wish to profit by the experience of Byerly in the recent bidding for Panama bonds, and get his bid early. It is altogether probable, say treasury officers, that in future offers of bonds a certified check will be required to accompany each bid.

TRUSTED EMPLOYEE.

Does Short About Quarter of a Million Dollars.

Pittsburg, August 4.—The fascination of the stock market led to the downfall of Clifford S. Hixton, a trusted employee of the Union Trust company of which Henry C. Frick, the steel magnate, is the principal stockholder, and Hixton is in the Allegheny county jail, charged with embezzlement. It is known that the shortage will amount to $225,000, and it is believed that when a complete investigation is made, the loss will reach over a quarter of a million dollars. Hixton has made a full confession.

WILL ANNOUNCE HIS INTENTION

Next Monday When Democratic Committee Meets.

Judge E. H. Puryear Has Not Yet Decided on His Course in Regard to Judgeship.

TWO OTHER CANDIDATES OUT.

Next Monday the Democratic committee will meet and decide on the manner of making the nominations for city offices this fall, and then the fight for the place on the ticket as candidate for judge of the police court will be on in earnest. As soon as the committee meets Judge E. H. Puryear will announce his intention in regard to the race. He said today that he has not made up his mind, and it is believed he is waiting to see whether the committee is inclined to make it a free-for-all, or will be controlled in the interest of one candidate.

Judge Puryear has made an excellent record since his appointment by Mayor Yelzer to fill out the unexpired term of the late Judge Sanders, both in the dispatch of business and his discrimination in administering punishment.

Magistrate Charles Emery it is believed, will be a candidate with the court house contingent behind him in the race. He has been talking of standing for the nomination and his friends believe he will allow his name to go before the party. He has had probably more experience than any other local magistrate in criminal business, and is well acquainted with the work.

Another aspirant is David G. Cross. He had often sat on the bench during the illness of the late Judge Sanders, and was picked out by the party workers, who rule things around the city hall, as the best apparent to the bench. They were incensed at the action of Mayor Yelzer in appointing Judge Puryear, and immediately set about advancing the interests of Mr. Cross in anticipation of the Democratic primary. Mr. Cross has many friends and his strength lies principally among the active politicians, who know all the ins and outs of the local game. He himself has always been a conspicuous ward worker and he will be a formidable candidate for the nomination.

There may be others in the race before the nomination is made.

WERE PILGRIM FATHERS WHO LANDED AT PLYMOUTH.

John H. Long Says Many of Them Were False to Their Trust—Social Vices.

New York, August 4.—A special to the Tribune from Plymouth, Mass., says:

John D. Long, former secretary of the navy, stirred up a lot of excitement here at the centenary of the first church of Plymouth by his address on the pilgrim fathers.

"The saints in Plymouth colony can be counted on the fingers," he said. "Some of the very elect were false to their trust and used their positions to feather their own nests, false to their trust than any president of a modern insurance company. Within the first decade social vices infested the community; drunkenness, bickering, slander, licentiousness and even crimes against nature were common. All this took place in a community of very limited numbers. No New England village of today need fear comparison with the early Plymouth colony."

The Manager Of the B. & A.

By VAUGHAN KESTER

Copyright, 1901, by Harper & Brothers

Constance had turned from the strenuous Oakley to the newcomer with a sense of unmistakable relief. Her mother, too, brightened visibly. She did not entirely approve of Hyder, but he was always entertaining in a lazy, indifferent fashion of his own.

"I see, Griff," the doctor said, "that you are going to support Kenyon. I declare it shakes my confidence in you," and he drew forward his chair. Like most Americans, the physician was something of a politician, and, as he also true of most Americans not professionally concerned in the hunt for office, this interest fluctuated between the two extremes of party enthusiasm before and nonpartisan disgust after elections.

Hyder smiled faintly. "Yes, we know just how much of a rascal Kenyon is, and we know nothing at all about the other fellow except that he wants the nomination, which is a bad sign. Suppose he should turn out a greater scoundrel. Really it's too much of a risk," he drawled, with an affectation of contempt.

"Your politics always were a shock to my friends, but this serves to explain them," remarked the doctor, with latent contentment. The Hyder was not to be beguiled into repentance. He turned again to Miss Emory.

"Your father is not a practical politician or he would realize that it is only common thrift to send Kenyon back, for I take it he has served his country and without profit to himself. Besides, he is charming and persistent, and there seems no other way to dispose of him. It's either that or the penitentiary."

Constance laughed softly. "And so you think he can afford to be honest now? What shocking ethics!"

"That is my theory. Anyhow I don't see why your father should wish me to force the mild excitement of assisting to elect any more or less disreputable friend. Antioch has had very little to offer me until you came," he added, with gentle deference. Miss Emory accepted the compliment with the utmost composure. Once she had been rather flattered by his attentions, but four years make a great difference. Either he had lost his cleverness or she had gained in knowledge.

He was a very tired young man. At one time he had possessed some expectations and numerous pretensions. The expectation had faded out of his life, but the pretensions remained in the absence of any vital achievement. He was college bred and had gone in for distasteful. As for music, he was familiar with the airs from the latest popular operas, but the masterpieces were utterly unknown, except such as had been brought to his notice by having strolling cures named in their honor, a practice he considered very complimentary and possessing value as a strong commercial endorsement.

He felt more and more lonely and aloof as the evening wore on, and it was a relief when the doctor took him into the library to examine specimens of iron ore he had picked up west of Antioch, where there were unexplored mineral lands for which he was trying to secure capital. This was a matter Oakley was interested in, since it might mean business for the road, the promptly forgot about Miss Emory and the objectionable Hyder and in ten minutes gave the doctor a better comprehension of the mode of procedure necessary to success than that gentleman had been able to learn in ten years of unfruitful attempting. He also supplied him with a few definite facts and figures in lieu of the multitude of glittering generalities on which he had been pinning his faith as a means of getting money into the scheme.

When at last they returned to the parlor they found another caller had arrived during their absence, a small, shabbily dressed man, with a high, bald head and weak, nearsighted eyes. It was Turner Joyce, Oakley knew him just as he was beginning to know every other man, woman and child in the town.

Joyce rose hastily, or, rather, stumbled to his feet as the doctor and Oakley entered the room.

"I told you I was coming up, doctor," he said apologetically. "Miss Constance has been very kind. She has been telling me of the galleries and studios. What a glorious experience!"

A cynical smile parted Hyder's thin lips.

"Mr. Joyce feels the isolation of his art here."

The little man blushed demurely at the speaker and then said, with a gentle, deprecatory gesture, "I don't call it art."

"You are far too modest. I have heard my friends speak in the most complimentary terms of the portrait artist you did of his wife. He was especially pleased with the frame. You must know, Miss Constance, that Mr. Joyce usually furnishes the frames, and his pictures go home ready to the wire to hang on the wall."

Mr. Joyce continued to blink doubtfully at Hyder. He secretly knew how to take the allusion to the frames. It was a sore point with him.

Constance turned with a displeased air from Hyder to the little artist. There was a faint, wistful smile on her lips. He was a rather pathetic figure in her, and she could not understand how Hyder dared or had the heart to make fun.

"I shall enjoy seeing all that you have done, Mr. Joyce, and of course I wish to see Ruth. Why didn't she come with you tonight?"

"Her cousin, Lou Heutick's wife, is dead, and she has been over at his house all day. She was quite worn out, but she sent you her love."

Hyder glanced again at Miss Emory and said, with hard cynicism: "The notice will appear in Saturday's Herald, with a tribute from her pastor. I never refuse his verse. It invariably contains some scathing comment on the uncertainty of the Baptist faith as a means of salvation."

But this was wasted on Joyce. Hyder rose, with a sigh.

"Well, we fellows must think of the morrow."

Oakley accepted this as a sign that it was time to go. Joyce, too, stumbled across the room to the door, and the three men took their leave together. As they stood on the steps the doctor said cordially, "I hope you will both come again soon, and you, too, Turner," he added kindly.

Hyder moved off quickly with Oakley. Joyce would have dropped behind, but the latter made room for him at his side. No one spoke until Hyder, halting on a street corner, said, "Sorry, but it's out of my way to go any further unless you'll play a game of billiards with me at the hotel, Oakley."

"Thanks," curtly. "I don't play billiards."

"Not? Well, it is a waste of time, I suppose. Good night!" and he turned down the side street, whispering softly, "A very extraordinary young man."

"Murmured Joyce, rubbing the tip of his nose meditatively with a painty forefinger. "And with quite an extraordinary opinion of himself."

A sudden feeling of friendliness prompted Oakley to turn his hand through the little artist's arm. "How is Heutick bearing the loss of his wife?" he asked. "You said she was your cousin."

"No, not mine; my wife's. Poor fellow! He feels it keenly. They had not been married long, you know."

NINETEEN YEARS HAD PASSED AWAY

When Father and Children Were Reunited.

Story of Daniel Tyree, Who Left Marshall County Years Ago and Was Found.

IS VISITING IN THIS CITY.

Nineteen years ago Dan Tyree left Marshall county without telling anyone where he was going or how long he was going to stay. His wife was dead, but he left three small children aged 11, 9 and 7, the oldest being a boy, Nell, who is now the popular carrier on Route No. 4, out of Benton. The girls are now grown to womanhood and married, one being in Paducah, the other in Farmington, Graves county.

About a week ago Nell Tyree heard that a man by the name of Tyree was in Evansville, Ind., who claimed to have lived in Marshall county, and thinking that it might be his long-absent father, he left last Saturday night for that place, and almost by accident found him Monday morning. Mr. Tyree did not recognize his son until he made himself known to him, and then the natural feelings of the father asserted themselves and a most affectionate greeting was given to the son, Nell stayed with his father in Evansville until the next day, and finally persuaded him to return with him to his old Kentucky home. He is now in Paducah visiting his daughter and brother Hiram Tyree, and will be in Benton Saturday.

Thus after an absence of nineteen years he returns to find the three small children grown to maturity, all married and have families of their own. During his absence he has been wandering from place to place, having been in several states south and west, but finally has returned to his relatives who are rejoiced that the wanderer has returned.—Tribune Democrat.

Mr. Daniel Tyree and his brother, Hiram Tyree, of this city, are visiting Mr. Daniel Tyree's daughter, Mrs. M. Owen, at Tyler.

BETRAYED BY DOG

And Hansen Was Arrested on Murder Charge.

Hammond, Ind., Aug. 4.—Betrayed by his dog, Thomas Hansen, of Chicago, is in jail here, accused of the murder of Jack Lannan at Gary yesterday. The posess which had been securing the country for the murderer returned to Tolleston, and were about to disperse, when it was suggested that the dog, known to have been with the man who killed Lannan, be made play the detective. The animal was taken to Gary, where it was supposed he would seek his master's tent. With a yelp of joy he went bounding out among the workmen's tents at Gary until he came to the tent occupied by Hansen.

J., whose body had been brought here for burial. McElroy was alone in the back of the horses of which became frightened and ran away. The vehicle was dashed violently against a post and demolished and McElroy's throat was cut almost from ear to ear by the broken glass of one of the windows. The driver was seriously injured.

SEWER EXTENSION
OF SEVEN MILES

Will be Made by City Before Winter Sets In.

Automobile Owners Must Secure Tags Monday or Face Judge Puryear Tuesday.

CARPENTERS THANK MAYOR.

Almost seven miles of sanitary and storm water sewers will be added to Paducah's system this fall, and it is expected at the city hall that the contract for the construction will be let by August 35. The aim of Mayor Yeiser and the sewer committee of the general council is to provide adequate service by the high school building this fall. The first section will be laid from Ninth street to Thirteenth street west, taking in the territory between Trimble and Tennessee streets.

Starting the work soon after August 25, two good month's work, at least, it is believed, can be put in, and as provisions will be made for rushing the construction, the city officials are looking forward to the completion of the system before cold weather puts a stop to outdoor operations.

After the Autoloids.

Automobile owners will have to secure their tags by Monday night, or take chances on a stiff fine in addition to the cost of the tags, License Inspector Lehnhard said today that on Tuesday he will swear out warrants for the arrest of those who have not purchased tags for their machines.

Carpenters Are Pleased.

Mayor Yeiser is in receipt of a letter of thanks from the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners for the appointment of Alonzo Crandell to the board of councilmen from the Fourth ward. The new councilman is a member of the organization and a leader among union labor men in the city.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Association Reunion.

Guthrie Ky., Aug. 4.—The second anniversary of the organization of the Dark Tobacco Protective association, formed for the purpose of securing better prices for tobacco raised in the dark tobacco district of Kentucky and Tennessee, will be observed at this place on September 22 with a monster barbecue. Preparations are now being made by a committee to entertain 25,000 people, and it is expected that the gathering will be the largest meeting of farmers ever held in the south. The association was organized at the fair grounds in Guthrie in 1904, and in the two years of its existence has more than fulfilled the expectations of those who started the movement which resulted in its formation.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Mr. Henry Watterson, Congressman A. O. Stanley, Ollie James, of Kentucky, and John Wesley Gaines, of Tennessee, and several other prominent men will be asked to attend the meeting and make speeches. The celebration held last year was attended by 18,000 farmers and their families.

Hopkins Elected.

Pikeville, Ky., Aug. 4.—Suddenly and without warning, while the eighteenth ballot was being taken, the name of Frank Hopkins was sprung on the Tenth district Democratic convention here this afternoon and after ten minutes of wild disorder, during which men were yelling and the chairman of the delegations were changing their votes, he was nominated as the party candidate for congress.

The City of Saltillo is expected to arrive out of the Tennessee river tonight on the return trip to St. Louis. There are 100 passengers making the round trip on this boat.

A LADY FAILING

To get her Oxfords from us misses a great deal of shoe comfort and the graceful beauty of stylish footwear. There is something you cannot exactly describe about a good, well fitting Oxford. But other people do notice it at a glance. An ill fitting shoe will destroy the entire effect of a beautifully gowned woman. If a shoe pinches or binds you cannot walk as gracefully as you could if you were comfortable and unconscious of your feet. When you put on our Oxfords you can rest easy as to correct style and comfort. If they're Rock's they're right, they're right they're Rock's.
